Subject: RE: HOLIDAY PARTY 2010!!!

I think the Environmental/Lead (EL) side expects the set ups to be over here. I'd like to use my several boxes of decorations and lights to decorate the hallway for the party but I'm still a little gimp. Can I have some volunteers to string up the lights and display the other HOLIDAY paraphernalia?
I'll focus on my specialty.....scavenging....for tables. I think we can sign out tables from the conference room from the librarian.
One last thought.... the Drug Lab should formally challenge EL to a steel cage team bowling tournament. After the individual bowling, the top four scorers from each group should face each other in a final ego crushing round of bowling mayhem. Peace on Earth goodwill towards humanoids!

It's Official!!!!

The 2010 HOLIDAY PARTY is scheduled for 12/22/10 at noon!

Please let me know ASAP if you think that a catered event (pizza & Chinese food) or a POTLUCK would be preferable to your teams... ☺
